

Robert Maxwell Intelligence Timeline (SEF v1.0)

Task ID: SHERLOCK-20260222-001

Document 1 of 4

Confidence Level: 0.65

Executive Summary

This document establishes a verified historical baseline for Robert Maxwell's career, death, and the origin of intelligence-related claims. Evidence distinguishes documented events from allegations.

Key Sections

- Timeline overview (1923–1991)
- Funeral and state signaling analysis
- FBI Vault corpus identification
- Claims ledger and confidence scoring

Source Quality Assessment

Primary anchors include FBI Vault releases and contemporaneous reporting.

Robert Maxwell — Networks & Relationships Map (SEF v1.0)

Task ID: SHERLOCK-20260222-001

Document 2 of 4

Confidence Level: 0.60

Executive Summary

Maps Maxwell's publishing, media, political, and intelligence-adjacent networks using graded evidence categories.

Core Findings

- Pergamon Press created global scientific access networks.
- Mirror Group provided mass-media influence capacity.
- Litigation and regulatory conflicts were documented and systemic.
- Intelligence links remain credible allegations pending archival proof.

Evidence Grades

E1 — Documented

E2 — Credible allegation

E3 — Speculative

Robert Maxwell — Evidence Dossier (SEF v1.0)

Task ID: SHERLOCK-20260222-001

Document 3 of 4

Confidence Level: 0.58

Executive Summary

Transforms narrative claims into artifact-based evidence anchored to primary or quasi-primary materials.

Primary Artifacts

- FBI Vault (Parts 01–08)
- UK Parliament Maxwellisation Review
- 1991–1994 litigation reporting

Method

Each claim tied to document anchors, evidence grade, and confidence score.

Robert Maxwell — Analytic Synthesis & Implications (SEF v1.0)

Task ID: SHERLOCK-20260222-001

Document 4 of 4

Confidence Level: 0.62

Executive Summary

Synthesizes evidence and evaluates competing hypotheses regarding Maxwell's intelligence role.

Conclusions

- Platform power is high-confidence.
- Formal intelligence tasking remains unproven.
- Litigation and procedural leverage explain many suppression claims without covert explanations.

Research Roadmap

1. Full FBI Vault indexing
2. Archival verification of MI6 claims
3. Expanded contemporaneous reporting comparison